

Making Digital Stereo Prints
by David Lee (david-lee@sbcglobal.net)

Scanners

Epson 2450 – <http://www.Epson.com> – inexpensive, will scan 35mm, 120, and 4x5. Scans at 2400x4800 dpi. ($400)

PrimeFilm 1800 – <http://www.scanace.com> - inexpensive 35mm, takes uncut film and Realist slides. Scans at 1800 dpi. ($180)

PrimeFilm 1800 AFL – <http://www.scanace.com> - inexpensive 35mm, takes uncut film and scans automatically, also Realist slides. Scans at 1800 dpi. ($280)

PrimeFilm Pro 3600 – <http://www.scanace.com> - same as previous but scans at 3600 dpi. ($430)

Nikon Super Coolscan 4000 ED – <http://www.nikonusa.com> - 35mm, will take rolls with an adaptor. Scans at 4000 dpi. ($1500)

Nikon Super Coolscan 8000 ED – <http://www.nikonusa.com> - 35mm and 120, scans at 4000 dpi. ($3000)

Imacon Flextight III – Any film up to 5x7. 5000 dpi. ($15,000)

Scanning software

Silverfast Ai 5.5 – <http://www.silverfast.com>

Printers

Epson 1160 – 13” wide, 4 color, good for black and white if you can find it used.

Epson 1200 – 13” wide, last unchipped printer, 6 color, used

Epson 1270 – 13” wide, 6 color, 1440 dpi, used

Epson 1280 – 13” wide, 6 color, 2880 dpi, ($500)

Epson 2000P – 13” wide, 6 color, archival pigment inks ($800)

Epson 2200 – 13” wide, 7 color (added grey cartridge), archival inks, ($700)

Epson 7600 – 24” wide, same as 2200 otherwise ($3,000)

Epson 9600 – 44” wide, same as 7600 otherwise ($5,000)

Printing Black and White (software)

Piezography BW – <http://inkjetmall.com>

Printing Black and White (ink)

MIS Associates – <http://inksupply.com>

Jon Cone's Inkjet Mall – <http://inkjetmall.com>

Papers

Epson Archival Matte – <http://www.epson.com>

Epson Enhanced Matte – (same as previous but available in 24” rolls)

Crane's Museo – <http://inksupply.com>

Photoshop Tools

PhotoSynthesis, Inc. – <http://www.panix.com/~jnr/>

Photoshop Books

Real World Photoshop 6 by David Blatner and Bruce Fraser

Photoshop 6.0 – Classroom in a Book

Making Digital Negatives for Contact Printing by Dan Burkholder

<http://www.danburkholder.com>

Get this book if you're interested in black and white

Other Print Options

Laser Light – <http://laslight.com>

Bill Nordstrom has his lab just down the street from me. It's not inexpensive, but he knows what he's doing

West Coast Imaging – <http://westcoastimaging.com>

You'll learn a lot just by looking at their website.